Sengol a symbol of transfer of power but it didn't get due respect until now , says PM.

Pm Modi said that "THE SENGOL" which was the symbol of transfer of power should have got its due respect after impence but it was kept on a "walking stick" in museum of Prayagraj.

PM Modi told these after receiving a "Sengol" from Tamil Nadu Adheenamas (heads of Hindu Monasteries) at residence on the eve of inauguration of new parliament building.

In 1947 Sengol was creates by Thiruvavaduthurai Adheenam Lord Mountbatten gave it to Jawahar Lal Nehru as symbol of power transfer. Congress on Friday claimed that there was no democracy evidence of lord mountbatten,Rajgopalachari and Jawaharlal Nehru describing the SENGOL.

Museum failed to identify SENGOL because no one could translate text engraved in Tamil.

“SENGOL used in 1947 as a symbol to Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru “ Language barrier was one of the main reason as those who bought SENGOL these were not equipped with Tamil language and writing on SENGOL is in Tamil later it was identified by jewelry company owner who could read language over it , and published it.

Right groups demand question on disability should remain in MFHS-6.

It is being speculated that national family health survey-6 (NFHS-6) MAY commence from July sources has confirmed that govt. is dropping questionnaire related to disability under NFHS-6.

NFHS is a large scale multi round survey by ministry of health and family welfare. Its purpose is to collect data regarding emerging health and family welfare issue .

Activists working for disable are demanding from govt to restore questionnaires' related to disability . otherwise it contradicts principle “leaves no one behind”
