➔ Tajia was started by Timur Lang

Tajiyadari was started in India years ago by Timur Lang Badshah. Born in 1336 in Kesh village near Samarkand, in Trans-Oxania (now Uzbekistan), Timur was trained by Chughtai, son of Genghis Khan. At the age of only 13, he became the chieftain of ChughtaiTuk. Some artists are said to have made the structure of the 'tomb' or memorial of Imam Hussain with the help of bamboo kimchis. It was decorated with different types of flowers. This was named Tajiya. This Tajiya was first kept in the palace complex of Timur Lung in 801 Hijri. Tell that 18 men of Hazrat Imam Hussain's family were martyred and 71 men were with others. He too was martyred.
