Editorial-1

Making it count

➔ What the editorial is all about?

The editorial is about govt's decision to drop the question on disability from NFHS-6 (National family health survey) the editorial says that govt should include question on these in NFHS-6.

➔ About NFHS-6

NFHS-6 will start in July. It is conducted by Ministry of health and family welfare.

NFHS last time used a sample of 6.1 lakh households to prepare its data.

NFHS questions include about Health and nutrition status, Access to health schemes, Insurance, Sexual behaviour Availability of family planning, use of contraception, household amenities and possession, lifestyle indicates, etc.

It is carried in every 4 years.

➔ About question of disability in NFHS

NFHS-5 had question on disability included first time, which many had welcomed but this time govt. has decided to drop questionnaire about these.

As per 2016 census there are about 2.68 crore disabled.

Govt's response over why it chooses to drop is

Questions on disability were already asked by govt as part of sample Registration survey (SRS) 76th round conducted b/w July and December 2018. And it is available in public domain also disability data "Will not change fast".

➔ Editorial however tells that govt should train staff for disability question and it should be part in NFHS-6 in new form.
