TRUCE TREATY

Congress seems to have brought peace in Rajasthan by taking pilot on Board

➔ What the editorial is all about?

The editorial is about the feud between Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot and Sachin Pilot. Ahead of Rajasthan Assembly polls expected to be later this year, there was a need for an end to the feud between these two for the better performance of Congress.

➔ Decisions taken in Rajasthan Congress high command meeting.

Sachin Pilot had three major demands: Reformation of Rajasthan Public Service Commission (RPSC), stringent punishment for those caught in paper leak cases, and investigation into alleged corruption by Vasundhara Raje Sindhia. Two of these demands have been accepted, i.e. Reformation of RPSC, and punishment in question leak cases. Mr. Pilot asserted that Congress would win more seats than in the 2018 polls, this time. This shows that for the time being, the leaders seem to be together and united, which is good for Congress poll prospects.

➔ About Congress poll blank

Social schemes like subsidised cooking gas at cost 500, health insurance of up to 25 lakh, etc. are some major social schemes that the Gehlot government will call for votes.
