Editorial

in Maldives

India must emerge with the new government in Male to deepen ties

➔ About the editorial

The editorial is about recent results of Maldivian election.

Mohammad Mizu former opposition leader defeated president Mohammad Salih .

The voting percentage of the two were 54% and 46% . The reasons of defeat is said to be economic crunch following CoVID 19 .

President Salih had adopted " India First " policy . While the election campaign of Mr. MiZzu was based on " India out " .

Mohammad Saleh had adopted a pro India policy . It is expected that new government will increase its closeness to China . PM Modi was among first to congratulate Mr. Muizzu On social media . India should avoid giving any impression that it has any favourite in Maldives . And should just hope that new govt will be on balanced approach when dealing with India
