➔ IOC approves T20 cricket for 2028 for LA Olympics : Compound archery misses out on a berth.

Cricket is all set to feature in the 2028 Olympics as the International Olympic Committee (IOC) executive body approved the proposal of Los Angeles games organisers to include the game. The proposal will be put to vote during an IOC session which begins here on Sunday.

Apart from cricket, which will be played in T20 format, four other sports—baseball, softball, flag football, lacrosse (sixes) and squash—have also been approved by the IOC committee.

The 2028 Olympics will be held in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles organisers have proposed T20 cricket for both men and women, to be played in a six-team format. The US will automatically qualify as the host nation, while five other teams will have to qualify for this. But, the final decision on the number of teams and the qualification process will be taken later.
