➔ Bail to Kejriwal to campaign will incentivise criminals to become politicians , says ED

- The Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Thursday filed a new affidavit in Supreme Court (SC) .
- In this ED has contended against giving bail to Arvind Kejriwal for campaigning .
- ED said that elections in India is “ all year round phenomenon “ . There were 123 elections across the country in last five years
- cautioned the supreme court against granting interim bail to Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal .
- saying that if “ unscrupulous “ politicians are given bail for campaigning .
- And if court starts giving bail for campaigning none of them would be arrested .
- ED said that giving bail will create precedent that would permit “ all unscrupulous politicians to commit crimes , avoid investigation under the garb of one election or other , be it municipal , Panchayat , Assembly or general elections , and therefore ,upon being arrested , seek interim bail to campaign for one election or other . “ .
- ED said that this will create two class of people one who are bound by rule of law and other who can seek exemption from laws with the hope of securing interim bail to campaign for elections .
- AAP has launched a complaint against ED’s affidavit .
- AAP called arrest of Arvind Kejriwal as unprecedented assault on democracy based on “ free and fair elections “ and “ federalism “ both of which form the basic structure of the constitution
