FAQ

➔ What are the rules on contesting seats ?

- Recently Rahul Gandhi filed nomination for Rae Bareli . He is also a candidate from Wayanad .
- Currently the Representation of People's Act (RPA) rules ,1951 says that a candidate can file nomination from a maximum two seats .
- However if the candidate wins from both the seats , he has to vacant one of the seats . A by-election will be conducted later on the vacant seats .
- This however can create big problem when many candidate start filing from more than one seats.In that case many seats will go vacant after the election results . And many seats will have to go for by election . Till now such problem has not resurfaced . And the idea that a candidate can stand from only one seat has been scrapped till now .
- The age for a person to contest Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha elections is 25 years and 30 years respectively

➔ How is India streamlining the Pharma sector ?

- India's drug regulator , the Central drugs Standard Control Organisation (CDSCO) recently has recently withdrawn power delegated to state licensing authorities to issue NOC of manufacturer approved , banned or new drugs for export purposes .
- The announcement has came amid scrutiny after several countries complained of substandard drugs.
- CDSCO is now the sole authority for issuing manufa
