Secular remedy

Muslim women right to maintainable under Secular law is well established

The editorial is about a recent judgement of Supreme Court in which it said that Muslim women can get maintenance after divorce under Article 125 of Cr PC .

The Maintenance of Muslim women after divorce generally is taught on the basis of Muslim personal law.

Section 3 of the 1986 act , of the Muslim Personal law talks that Muslim women has right to maintenance by husband but only to a period of iddat . Also, the husband will maintain children for only two years .

Iddat is a period of threemonths after divorce , till which Muslim women can not remarry .

Under section 125 of Cr PC , women are allowed to get maintenance for her and for her children after divorce .

The court said that the laws of personal law (section 3 of Article 125) and laws under CrPC is not violative to each other .And if a Muslim women thinks that she won't be able to maintain herself she can use 125 of Cr PC.
