SC will examine if governors action subverts federalism

The Supreme Court agreed on Friday , to examine the governor indefinitely , sitting on crucial bills only to eventually refer them to the president , who acts on the advice of the center , opening the doors of the Union in state subjects .

In the petition filed by Kerala government , it said that there were seven bills which had been kept for the consideration of the center for two or more years . Kerala said that the center had withheld seven bills without assigning any reason. The bills didn't deal with center state relations .

Article 213 gives power to the governor to withhold a bill for considerations of the President .

SC extends stay on Uttarakhand , UP .order to shops on Kanwar Yatra route

A bench of Justice Hrishikesh Roy and S.V.N Bhatti refused to rethink the court's earlier stay on implementation of a directive issued to display names of food cart owners in route of Kanwar Yatra . The bench extended the stay order till August 5 .

The UP government argued that the directive was as per law . " It is a requirement by law . Your lordship's order staying it violates a central law . " Mr Mukul Rohatgi said . " Then enforce it all across and not only in certain areas . " The court said .

The Uttarakhand government said that such directives were issued in " all festivals " and were an antidote to " law and order problem " . The petitioner had argued discriminatory nature of the directive .

17 candidates secured perfect scores as NTA declared final results of NEET UG

NTA on Friday released final marks of NEET UG test . 17 candidates got full scores .

NTA has awarded full marks on a question which had two correct answers according to two different books . Old NCERT book had one answer correct , while the new NCERT book had the other answer correct . The court intervened and after consultation by experts , it was decided that only the answer from the new NCERT book was correct . And those who answered correctly according to the old NCERT were deducted 5 marks ( 4 marks for correct answers , one negative mark for wrong answers ) .

Earlier the total number of candidates scoring full marks was 67 . Now the number is 17 . Meanwhile , CBI has arrested one more candidate from Jharkhand's Dhanbad district . This is the 37 th arrest in the case .

Royal burial mounds of Assam now a UNESCO world heritage List

The Chairadeo Moidams , 700 year old burial mounds burial systems of Ahoms dynasty from Assam , were added to UNESCO world heritage list on Friday . This makes them 43rd entry in UNESCO world heritage site , from India to be included in the prestigious index .

This is the first World Heritage site from North Eastern states in the cultural category .

The announcement was made at the 46th session of the world heritage committee in New Delhi . Similar to pyramids , the Modems are earthen burial mounds of the members of the Ahom royalty , whose 600 year rule was ended by British royalty . Of the 386 modems explored so far , 90 at Chair Deo is best preserved .

This makes Charaideo district a tourist destination .

Special relationship

The broad national consensus on Israel in the US is slowly breaking up

Israeli President Benjamin Netanyahu's US visit had met with widespread protest .
More than 39,000 has died in Gaza .

Israeli could not have done this devastation to Gaza without weapon support from US .
But the large protest has shown that the US support is breaking away .
